Directs that ~~he~~ he should obtain previous sanction ~~orders~~ of the Govt for transferring or granting leave to Gazetted officers, that emergent cases, which will be rare, will receive the prompt attention of Govt.

The Senior Surgeon was transferring Gazetted Offrs of the Medical Deptt and granting them leave, in anticipation of Govt sanction, both in urgent and ordinary Cases. His procedure on his point, which was opposed to Codal rules, was pointed out to him, and he was requested to obtain previous sanction of Govt in all such Cases (except grant of casual leave under article 171 of the M. S Regns) in Govt Procs: No 12318 Mis 3261 dated the 16th March, 1901. The Senior Surgeon having again deviated from the Course pointed out in the order of the 16th March/01, his attention was again drawn to it in para 2 of Govt Procs: No 1356-7 Mis 203 & 22/7/02 Papers Paper No 8. ~~Secretary to~~ Write to the ~~Secretary~~ to this office, ~~he~~ to this order, he wants to know, in his present letter No 647 dated the 20th August 1902, how he should act in Cases of emergency. Submitted for orders.

the demi Official enquiry ordered was made. In reply, the Senior Surgeon has forwarded an original Surgeon General's D.O. of the 16th September, 1902, in which that Officer states that under the Madras Civil Medical Code, para 25, page 5, he is authorized to carry out all promotions, transfers and Miscellaneous matters of routine affecting uncovenanted Medical Officers and Civil Assistant Surgeons without previous reference to Government.

I do not know if the Madras Practice is to be any guide to us, more than to a very limited extent. We carry on things here on a miniature Scale Comparatively. A District Collector in Madras has more power over a Tahsildar than the Rev. Commr. has here. The Chief Court does not transfer Munsifs without sanction of Govt here, while in Madras, they have the Power of making adalts. I am not sure if the D.O. letter was not worded in as Non-Committing a way as it should have been. I still think that the reply should be as in the draft submitted.
